

Radio Shack/Sprint are letting underage teenagers obtain contracts with no ID and no parental notifications. Also, overcharging for out-of-pocket and was charged on the bill. Then when I went in there to voice my concerns they told me that is it was done there, and they continued to deny this with the papers in hand I had to show the proof of my argument.